

Puzzle Theory Questions

1. Were you accurate in your final prediction?
2. What were some of the frustrations doing this activity?
  - a. Ex: did you try to fit pieces together that obviously not go, were you mad that you weren't able to complete the whole puzzle, did you argue with your group members about the predictions, ect)
3. Do you think the order you pulled out the pieces would have affected your explanations along the way? Explain
4. What would happen if you had 25 more pieces? How would that affect your prediction?
5. How does this activity relate to scientific theories and evolution?
6. Can a theory still be accurate even if you don't have all the pieces?

Explain